Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Tuesday 09 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry and cloudy. Turning wet and windy tonight.

Today:
Dull and cloudy with patchy drizzle across south and central Scotland, mainly dry and somewhat brighter conditions further north. Strengthening southerly winds with rain reaching the west coast by dusk.

Tonight:
Outbreaks of heavy rain and strong to gale force southerly winds, severe gales across the Western Isles. Clearer conditions with a few showers later in the night and winds easing.

Wednesday:
Some drier and brighter spells at first in the east, but further wet and windy weather will push northeast during the day. Gales at times around the coast.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Cold and windy with heavy blustery showers during Thursday and Friday, wintry on high ground. Drier and brighter in the east. Winds easing on Saturday and showers more scattered.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.